

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

An animal excretions-treating material includes particles, and each particle is composed of a core layer of fibers and a skin layer to cover the core layer. The skin layer contains α -starch and fibers.